Financial Certification

U.S. Department of Homeland Security regulations require that Mitchell Hamline School of Law maintain records showing that you have met the financial requirements (as well as its academic and language proficiency requirements). You are responsible for demonstrating that you have sufficient funds to meet all educational and personal expenses for the duration of your F-1 status at the College. You must fill out all the information on this form before Mitchell Hamline of Law will issue you an I-20

You must certify that funds are indicated in United States currency and that you have at least the amount necessary to cover your tuition, fees, and living expenses for your first academic year (12 months). If you attend summer session and/or bring your spouse or other dependents with you to the United States, you must certify that you have the additional amount necessary to cover those costs.

Official proof of funding must be received before your I-20 can be issued. Proof of funding must be current within the last 6 months and documented in U.S. currency. The documentation of funding can be provided using the following financial documentation:

1. Bank letter signed by a bank official indicating sufficient funds in an account, or
2. Statement of account from a bank, brokerage house, or
3. Any combination of the above to equal amount needed.
