

Ted Sampsell-Jones

Mitchell Hamline College of Law • 875 Summit Ave. • St Paul, MN
ted.sampselljones@mitchellhamline.edu • (415) 846-5485

EDUCATION

Yale Law School

1999 – 2002

Juris Doctor

- Yale Law Journal, Editor, Volumes 110 and 111 • Coker Fellow
- Research assistant to Professor Owen Fiss.

Dartmouth College

1993 – 1997

B.A. with High Honors in Philosophy, Summa Cum Laude

- Phi Beta Kappa • GPA: 3.96 • Class Rank: 4 of 1035

EMPLOYMENT AND PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

William Mitchell

College of Law

2007 – present

Professor of Law

- Tenured full professor teaching courses in Evidence, Advanced Evidence, Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, and Sentencing.
- Chair, Minnesota Rules of Evidence Advisory Committee.
- Member, Rules of Criminal Procedure Advisory Committee.
- Special Assistant Public Defender, State Appellate Defender's Office.

Riordan & Horgan

San Francisco, CA

2003 – present

Of Counsel

- Consulting attorney for California's leading criminal appellate boutique law firm, with a focus on high-profile federal criminal appeals.
- Clients include: Barry Bonds (9th Cir., obstruction); AU Optronics (9th Cir., antitrust); Hamid Hayat (C.D. Cal., terrorism); Michael Baker (5th Cir., securities fraud); Douglas Whitman (S.D.N.Y., securities fraud).

Univ. of Minn.

Law School

2006 – 2007

Visiting Assistant Professor

- Taught Criminal Law, Evidence, and Criminal Procedure.
- Ranked in teaching evaluations near the top of entire law faculty.

Ninth Circuit

Court of Appeals

2002 – 2003

Law Clerk for the Honorable William A. Fletcher

- Assisted Judge Fletcher in deciding appeals in a variety of legal fields, including immigration, criminal law, and civil litigation.

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS

- Implicit Stereotyping as Unfair Prejudice in Evidence Law, 83 U. Chi. L. Rev. On. 174 (2016).
- Measuring Pearson in the Circuits, 80 Fordham L. Rev. 623 (2012).
- Preventive Detention, Character Evidence, and the New Criminal Law, 2010 Utah L. Rev. 723.
- Making Defendants Speak, 93 Minn. L. Rev. 1327 (2009).
- Reviving Saucier: Prospective Interpretations of Criminal Laws, 14 George Mason L. Rev. 725 (2007).