

STINSON LEONARD STREET

MINORITY FELLOWSHIP

What is it? Substantial Tuition Assistance and Summer Associate Opportunity

The Minority Fellowship offers up to $30,000 of law school tuition assistance plus a paid summer associate position at Stinson Leonard Street. A $15,000 payment is made upon successful completion of Stinson's 1L Summer Associate Program, and a second $15,000 payment after successful completion of the 2L Summer Associate Program and acceptance of an associate position. The $30,000 in tuition assistance is in addition to the summer associate salary.

Do You Qualify?

To be eligible for the fellowship, a candidate must:

- ▶ Be a 1L who is a member of a racial minority group historically underrepresented in the legal profession
- ▶ Have a strong academic record as an undergraduate, graduate (if applicable) and law school student.
- ▶ Be interested in areas of law that match the firm's practice areas
- ▶ Demonstrate strong legal writing skills
- ▶ Be committed to practicing law in the firm's locations to which the candidate is seeking a summer associate position.

What you'll need to pull together

To apply for the Minority Fellowship, you'll need to submit:

- ▶ One-page cover letter
- ▶ Résumé
- ▶ Unofficial or official undergraduate and law school transcripts
- ▶ A legal writing sample
- ▶ 2-3 professional or academic references

Apply at recruiting.stinson.com by January 31. All applications are considered on a rolling basis.
