

AN EVENING OF THOUGHT LEADERSHIP & NETWORKING

Lawyering in the 21st Century: Legal Innovation Meets AI

Artificial intelligence (AI) is just beginning to come into its own in its use by lawyers and within the legal industry. Our Lawyering in the 21st Century session looks at the impact of AI and other new technologies on the legal profession.

In addition, hear from Thomson Reuters employees on how they are leveraging their law degrees and legal know-how in areas such as editorial, product development, marketing and sales to revolutionize the legal industry.
