

I am attaching a summary of information that was obtained during discovery, which is being sent to all parties and lawyers.

FYI, I have compiled all the requests into the attached document so that you can get a sense of the kind of information you might request in a case like this. Not surprisingly, many students asked for good, basic information. Some of the requests were particularly creative in thinking about what information might be helpful and how it might be obtained. Even though some of this information would not be formally discoverable, it is good to keep in mind what information you might get in other ways.

See you Wednesday.
