

Trial LawHER Scholarship

Future women trial lawyers, the power of settlement planning is in your hands.

Milestone has established the Trial LawHER Scholarship to help a woman law school student achieve her goal of becoming a plaintiff trial lawyer. This law school scholarship intends to elevate a rising woman leader in the plaintiff trial lawyer space and educate future trial lawyers around the power of settlement planning.

The submission window is open from May 11 to August 1, 2021.

Application requirements include:

- 1,500-2,000-word essay
- Closing argument video
- Letter of recommendation from a law professor

Each applicant's essay and video will be evaluated as a cohesive submission and will be judged on its ability to present the most powerful and persuasive argument.

One deserving recipient will be selected to receive $10,000 toward her future schooling. The winning essay and video will be shared on Milestone's blog and social media, and the winner will be required to travel to Buffalo, NY – expenses paid – to receive her scholarship award.

For complete details or to apply, visit:

milestoneseventh.com/trial-lawher-scholarship