Students are invited to join Eric Levenhagen '09, Chief Administrative Officer and General Counsel at Sun Country Airlines, for a Hangar and Headquarters tour followed by a rousing round of “Stump the Chump” near the Sun Country campus. Mr. Levenhagen will come prepared to share about his path from law school to Sun Country, as well as the inside scoop on what life is really like as in-house counsel for an airline, and what he wishes he would have known as a law student to better prepare for life after law school.

ABOUT ERIC LEVENHAGEN '09:

Because his fighter-pilot father exposed him early and often to aviation fuel, Eric Levenhagen’s brain has been permanently wired to love aviation and the aviation community. While attending Hamline University School of Law, Mr. Levenhagen worked in several finance and marketing roles, including pricing for Northwest Airlines. He began practicing in Houston, TX, doing corporate, finance, and real estate transactions, with an emphasis on M&A and aviation, and served as Chair of the Aviation Section of the State Bar of Texas. Mr. Levenhagen returned to Minnesota after helping finalize Signature Flight Support’s acquisition of Landmark Aviation as Assistant General Counsel, and then joined Sun Country as its General Counsel.
