

MINORITY FELLOWSHIP

DIVERSITY & INCLUSION

STINSON

WHAT IS IT?

Substantial Tuition Assistance and Summer Associate Opportunity. The Minority Fellowship offers up to $30,000 of law school tuition assistance plus a paid summer associate position at Stinson. A $15,000 payment is made following successful completion of the 1L Summer Associate Program and acceptance of a 2L Summer Associate position. A second $15,000 payment is made following successful completion of the 2L Summer Associate Program and acceptance of an associate position. The $30,000 in tuition assistance is in addition to the summer associate salary.

DO YOU QUALIFY?

To be eligible for the fellowship, a candidate must:

- ▶ Be a 1L who is a member of a racial minority group historically underrepresented in the legal profession
- ▶ Have a strong academic record as an undergraduate, graduate (if applicable) and law school student
- ▶ Be interested in areas of law that match the firm's practice areas
- ▶ Demonstrate strong legal writing skills
- ▶ Be committed to practicing law in the firm's locations to which the candidate is seeking a summer associate position (currently only available in Minneapolis, Kansas City and St. Louis)
- ▶ Enrolled in any U.S. ABA-accredited law school

WHAT YOU'LL NEED TO PULL TOGETHER

To apply for the Minority Fellowship, you'll need to submit:

- ▶ One-page cover letter
- ▶ Résumé
- ▶ Unofficial or official undergraduate and law school transcripts
- ▶ A legal writing sample
- ▶ 2-3 professional or academic references

Apply at www.stinson.com by January 15. All applications are considered on a rolling basis.
