

Jim Hanson serves as an Adjunct Professor at Mitchell Hamline School of Law and is a member of the Center for Law and Business advisory board. Mr. Hanson has significant financial services experience and his Banking Law course is among the core requirements for the Certificate in Bank Compliance offered through the Center.

Mr. Hanson recently retired as Senior Vice President of Wells Fargo & Company where, for more than two decades, he was responsible for the Company's corporate financial reporting activities, including SEC and regulatory reporting. He also managed teams that supported Wells Fargo's Insurance Center of Excellence and the Company's mergers and acquisition process, including regulatory applications, due diligence, structuring and transition of acquired companies. Mr. Hanson also has significant legal entity, risk management and corporate governance experience, and served as a director on the board of several Wells Fargo subsidiary banks and affiliated companies.

Prior to joining Wells Fargo, Mr. Hanson was a Senior Manager with the international public accounting firm, KPMG LLP, and served clients in the firm's Financial Services and Middle Market practice groups. Mr. Hanson holds a BBA in Accounting from the University of Wisconsin where he was recognized as the Distinguished Student from the School of Business at Commencement. He received his J.D. from Hamline University School of Law, graduating summa cum laude. In addition to admission to the Minnesota Bar, Mr. Hanson is licensed as a Certified Public Accountant in Minnesota and Wisconsin.