

Planning Form for Academic Requirements

Student Name:			ID Number:
I. Credit and GPA Requirements
86 and 2.0: Students matriculating prior to fall 2015 (except Hybrid Program students) 83 and 2.0: Students matriculating in spring 2015 (Cohort 1-Hybrid Program students) or fall 2015 83 and 2.2: Students matriculating in fall 2016-spring 2020 86 and 2.2: Students matriculating in fall 2020 or later			Number of Earned credits: GPA:
II. TIME ALLOWED TO EARN THE JD DEGREE
A student must complete his or her J.D. Degree no earlier than 24 months and not later than 84 months after matriculation			Matriculated: Planned final semester:
III. Required coursework
A. Required courses			Status	Term Completed
WMCL course titles	HUSL course titles	MH course titles
Civil Dispute Resolution OR Civil Procedure	Civil Procedure OR Civil Procedure I and Civil Procedure II	Civil Dispute Resolution
Torts: The Common Law Process OR Torts I and Torts II	Torts OR Torts I	Torts: The Common Law Process
Criminal Law: Statutory Interpretation OR Criminal Law	Criminal Law	Criminal Law: Statutory Interpretation
Contracts: Transactional Law OR Contracts	Contracts OR Contracts I and Contracts II	Contracts: Transactional Law
Property: Jurisprudential and Comparative Analysis OR	Property	Property: Jurisprudential and Comparative Analysis

Property I and Property II
		Legal Methods (required for students matriculating in Fall 2020 and later)
		Foundations of Practice (required for students matriculating in Fall 2020 and later)
Constitutional Law - Powers	Constitutional Law I	Constitutional Law – Powers OR Constitutional Powers: Advanced Legal Reasoning
Writing & Representation: Advice & Persuasion	Legal Research and Writing I AND Legal Research and Writing II	Lawyering: Advice and Persuasion Legal Analysis, Research, and Communication (LARC) (effective Fall 2020)
Professional Responsibility	Practice, Problem Solving & Professional Responsibility	Professional Responsibility
Advocacy	Legal Research and Writing III: Appellate Brief	Advocacy Negotiation OR Transactions and Settlements (experiential credits for students matriculating Fall 2016 or later)

Liberties: Advanced Legal Reasoning OR Constitutional Law - Liberties	Constitutional Law II	Liberties: Advanced Legal Reasoning OR Constitutional Liberties
B. Experiential courses
In addition to Advocacy, students matriculating Fall 2014, Spring 2015, Fall 2015 or Spring 2016 must complete 3 experiential course credits.			Number of experiential credits completed:
Additional Required Academic Support Programming (required for students with GPA under 2.8 and/or in the bottom quartile of class)			Status	Term Completed
Bar Prep Strategies: MPT
Bar Prep Strategies: MBE MEE
Evidence
Constitutional Criminal Procedure
III. Graduation Requirements			Status	Term Completed
Upper Level Advanced Research and Writing requirement (long paper)
Career Development Employment Survey (questions should be directed to the Office of Career and Professional Development)
Financial Aid Exit Interview (questions should be directed to the Office of Financial Aid)
Perkins Loan Exit Interview (If applicable. Questions should be directed to the Student Accounts Office.)
Number of Diversity Programming Hours Completed (for students matriculating in Fall 2016 or later)
IV. Limitation on Number of Non-Classroom Credits
64 credits must be JD classroom credits or -no more than 19 credits under 83 credit requirement -no more than 22 credits under the 86 credit requirement can be applied toward graduation from field placements (including externships), moot court or other competitions, Law Review or Journal, independent studies, course exchanges or dual-degree courses , or any course for credit that is substantially based upon time expended outside a regularly scheduled class time at MHSL or another ABA-accredited law school. For Marshall Brennan Project, students earn four credits for this course. One of the four credits counts toward the 19			Number of non-classroom credits completed:

outside-the-classroom credit limit, as it is a credit for the field placement in a high school classroom.

No more than 27 credits under the 83 credit requirement or 28 credits under the 86 credit requirement may be earned toward the J.D. degree through courses that are designated “distance education courses.” A distance education course is one in which students are separated from the faculty member or each other for more than one-third of the instruction and the instruction involves the use of technology to support regular and substantive interaction among students and between the students and the faculty member, either synchronously or asynchronously. Source: ABA Standard 306 (a).

Number of online credits completed: